IT BEGINS!

Huge trucks greeted the assembling members of the RC of Everett, as did members Ted Wenta and Carl Zapora.

President Jim banged the bell at 12:18 and led all in the Pledge of Allegiance. Betsy Baker gave the Thought of the Day, and Mike Kight led the opening song. Jim Angell managed the introductions of visiting Rotarians and guests.

Joe Gaffney introduced returning member Russ Kimball, owner of Evergreen State Heat and AC located at 2120 Pacific Avenue.

VP Larry Byers reported on the nomination, selection, and adventure for GSE applicants. Janet Prichard gave a Membership Committee report, and Betsy Baker reported on the last Fellowship event and gave a Fellowship Committee update.

PP Dick Lyons again explained the club-wide Fireside of March 17th and how his com-

PDG Kathy De Tuerk was happy to contribute $41 in celebration of the number of years married to Al De Tuerk, and warned that Al might try to go cheap with a $10.25 contribution owing to being married on February 29th. Al was quick to respond, confessing his longstanding bewilderment as to when to celebrate a Feb 29th anniversary, and gave $50 to the ERYF.

PP Marc Baker arose to point out how a short month like February can catch a businessman short of A/R billing supplies. At 6:30 pm he suddenly realized he didn't have enough envelopes to get his statements out. In a panic, he called Parker Fowlds at home and he was kind enough to return to Everett Stationers and re-supply Marc, a kindness that prompted a $10 ERYF from Marc.

Reid Shockey recalled a staff member having a birthday a couple of years ago at an age younger than his business. Mr. Shockey was $100 happy that March 1st marks the 25th anniversary of Shockey Brent, Inc. Judy Tuohy was happy that the Arts Council is getting support from the Mayor and the City of Everett for an upcoming event and alerted everyone that an Arts Council auction begins right after the boat show.

Todd Spradlin was happy to comment on how "hot" Rose Goulet looked in her Refuse uniform and opined that if Rose drove her truck up to his house he'd throw his own garbage in. (Rose asked father Ed to get his address). Todd said he started with Brian Ford in 1981 but now has moved across the valley to the commercial department of Bickford Ford. Kathy Gambill was happy to talk about the Costco "Taste of the Town" scheduled for Friday. Chaplin Mike Hakanson had $5 for rumor control; he is going to be deployed to Iraq in September and will be looking to do make-ups at the RC of Baghdad. Susan Auchterlonie-Smoots was happy that the 11th Annual Benefit Breakfast for the Everett Public Schools Foundation was coming soon and wanted to thank Andy Hall for giving her a Duran-Duran bookmark.

Kaye Phinney was happy that Rose Goulet happened to see Bud and her standing in line for seating at ScuttleButts and graciously invited them to join her seated family for dinner.

Roy Yates was $100 happy to celebrate his 66th birthday and to have experienced a great vacation in Hawaii with his extended family. He took his two oldest grandchildren out to Pearl Harbor where they toured the exhibits and watched the Abraham Lincoln being berthed. Deborah Wright was happy to have attended the ground-braking ceremony for the new Everett Symphony headquarters. Jerry Tucker arose to report an act of kindness and charity. The Muscular Dystrophy Shamrocks needed to be sorted and staged, and Crown Image/President Jim donated the use of warehouse space so that it could be accomplished. Pam Richards was happy to report that the VGAL Change for Children is continuing to grow and that paper money is also acceptable. President Jim was $10 happy that the Husky B-ball team is back to No. 10.

Al De Tuerk rose again with $20 to confess his quandary over the rules of the Haul of Fame. If he were to successfully solicit an ERYF contribution from his assigned partner that was greater or lesser than his contribution, a fairness issue became a cause for pause. Upon further thinking, Al recognized that he has never won anything in any Rotary event, so the issue isn't about the fairness of giving, but about fulfilling an obligation for Rotary service. Further, he attempted to report to Police Chief Jim Scharf that there are a couple of Rubatino Refuse trucks parked in a fire zone outside our meeting place. (Ed protests: "They're loading! They're loading!") Rose Goulet responded to Al's comments by giving him a Rubatino Refuse ball cap and a T-shirt captioned "Garbage Is Beautiful", noting the shirts come in "one size fits practically no one".

Bucks in Trucks!

Rose Goulet, campaign chair, began the special kick-off by thanking everybody attending today for taking the themed sack lunch break from their route. She also thanked the caterers for the extra work in preparing the sack lunches. Rose then thanked the sponsors of the HAUL OF FAME for stepping up with financial support, and mentioned that the Sponsors Banner will be updated and printed weekly and will be featured behind the dais for the remainder of the Rotary program year.

Having thanked Mike Campbell and Northwest Marine Trade Association for the $1,000 sponsorship, she confessed to noticing an early partner, Everett Stationers (Parker Fowlds), had been erroneously omitted from the banner and wondered how she'd ever make it up to Parker. Nearly inconsolable, she called upon the designated Route Foremen of the HAUL OF FAME to come forward for investiture of the campaign regalia.

Barbara McCarthy, Greg Tizdel, Jim Schrader, Kathy Moore, Larry Byers, Steve Hatloe, Steve Juntwait, Suzie Pool Moses, Will McMahan, and Ed Rubatino were joined by temp Kim Buike for the ceremony. Semi-appropriate vests, ball caps, and gloves were distributed for use in the work ahead. Elder Ed wheeled in a toter, and SURPRISE!...out popped Larry Larson in a smashing St. Laurent faux pas garbage can. DL&I/Workmans comp coverage hadn't been a concern of the campaign until Foreman Rubatino attempted to assist Mr. Larson from the trash. Larry explained that Rose had asked him to be her mascot for the

Kimball Returns!

Joe Gaffney introduced returning member Russ Kimball.

Russ previously was a member of the RC of Alderwood, and first joined our club in 1999 and continued his membership through 2003.

Russ has been married 9 years to Pam Kimball, and they enjoy their 4 year old daughter, Mariko. She is a very active little girl who keeps her parents fully occupied with gymnastics class and co-op preschool.

Mr. Kimball has owned Evergreen State Heat & AC, formerly know as Evergreen State Sheet Metal, since 1998. His company is a full service HVAC contractor serving both residential and commercial customers in Snohomish county. The company moved to its present location at 2120 Pacific Avenue in downtown Everett 2 years ago, from its previous location of 35 years on East Marine View Drive.

campaign, and he graciously agreed. Larry stated that he had been searching through garbage cans looking for money, and he became amazed at what people throw away. Larry said he found a case of Visine in the garbage can at Rick Neuheisel's place. And he found a "Build Your Wine Collection Quick and Cheap" winemaking kit in the trash at the home of Tom Rainville, and at another business alley he found a letter from Harley Davidson, Inc. with instructions on how to treat "genital road rash" that was addressed to Marc Baker. Thus began the first of an interesting three weeks.

One hundred and ten members contributed an average of $400 per person for the first week of the HAUL OF FAME campaign.
